

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3923 - HB 3982

February 15, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires students to pass a course in personal finance to receive a high school diploma.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

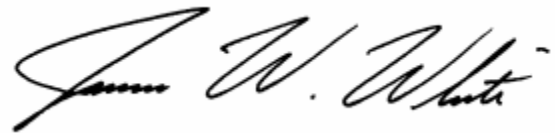

MINIMAL

Assumption:

- The State Board of Education approved new curriculum standards on January 25, 2008 effective for the 2009-10 school year. One requirement of the new curriculum is that all students pass a finance course to receive a high school diploma. Steps are currently being taken on the state and local level to implement this change. This bill requires early implementation of this requirement and will have minimal fiscal impact.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "James" written in a smaller, more compact script than the last name "White".
